

Certification of Good Health

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that RODERICK B. PALMES is of good health both physically (Name of Intern)

and mentally, making him exceptionally well-qualified for participation in on-the-job training. The comprehensive assessment not only indicates physical well-being but also a sound state of mental health, attesting to his capacity to actively and effectively contribute to professional development initiatives. This certification is granted with confidence in his aptitude to enhance the learning experience and foster growth among peers during the on-the-job training process at LexMeet Inc. under the Front-end Development Department.
